

Bible Study 7 – Deliverance via a substitutionary sacrifice – Exodus 12:1-30

Have you ever set a reminder on your phone or tied a string around your finger just so you wouldn't forget something important? We all know how easy it is to forget. That's why we use calendars, alarms, and sticky notes—to help us remember what we dare not forget. In Exodus 12, God gives the Israelites an unforgettable event—the first Passover. He wants them to remember it, year after year, generation after generation. So, He gives them special instructions, which would help them remember His power and His faithfulness. The Passover wasn't just about that one night in Egypt; it was about never forgetting what God had done for them.

The context	God sent Moses to Pharaoh to bring the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt. Moses was reluctant to obey God. But God promised to help him. After Moses asked Pharaoh to let the Israelites go, the oppression increased. When Aaron's snake ate the magician's snakes, Pharaoh still refused to let them go. Because Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let the Israelites go, God sent a series of ten miraculous judgments on Egypt. Today we look at the 10 th judgment.

PART 2 Things I discovered in this passage

1. What does it teach about God, Jesus or the Holy Spirit?

2. What does it teach about people?

3. Summarize a key verse in your own words.

4. In your opinion, what is the main point being taught in this passage?

5. Which other parts of the passage caught your attention?

6. Why do you think Jesus was referred to as, “our Passover lamb” (1 Corinthians 5:7)?

7. Which parts of the passage were difficult to understand? What questions come to your mind?

The 10th miraculous judgment on Egypt was the death of their firstborn sons. Because this resulted in their deliverance from death and slavery, the Israelites were to remember it annually with the Passover and the Festival of unleavened bread. The sacrifice of the Passover lamb was a pattern prophecy of the sacrificial death of Jesus Christ. What can you do to make sure you don't forget God's promises and commands, answered prayer, and work in your life?

Obey

Since God's word is true, what must I change in my life to obey God?
